Description:

Johnny goes to visit a friend and realizes that something is very wrong. His friend's dog is straining against its chain, and barking wildly at the house. When Johnny knocks on the door there is no answer. Without Johnny's quick thinking his friend would have certainly died. This is a story about how a child saves an adult's life, and friendships know no age limits. The story is set on the West Coast in beautiful Fort Bragg, California, where Johnny loves to explore with his friends. Step into Johnny's world and follow him on his adventures where the wildlife and scenery comes vividly alive. Other books in this series of adventures are: Book 1 Johnny's Reptile Adventure, Book # 2 is The Skippers Captain, Book # 3 is The Heroic Dog and Boy, Book # 4 is Finding A Home Book # 5 is The Magic Wishbone, and Book # 6 is Johnny's Treasure Adventure. All of the stories in this series are packed with action and drama. But most of all, they are about people caring about, and for one another. This series is best enjoyed starting with book #1 or #2.

Loved this book. The only thing I had to decide to ignore was how proper and perfect all the young children spoke. I've been around bunches of children the same ages and none of them speak that nice. Other than that, the book was great. I've gone on to read all six books and really enjoyed them all. I'm waiting on books seven, eight, nine, and ten to be written...hint, hint to Ms. Crook!
